Who doesn't want to relieve slow dancing in the dark with the one you loved! New Colony Six is onstage and ready to bring you back to great teenage memories!

Formed in Chicago, Illinois, the New Colony Six were one of the first of the city's teenage groups to secure a national hit when 'I Confess' reached the US Hot 100 in February 1966. The sextet then moved to Los Angeles where they shared a house with Paul Revere And The Raiders, adopting the same 'Revolutionary War'-styled garb favoured by the latter act.

The New Colony Six - Patrick McBride (vocals, harmonica), Ray Graffia (tambourine, vocals), Jerry Kollenburgh (lead guitar), Carug Kemp (organ), Wally Kemp (bass) and Chic James (drums) - initially pursued a hard, British-influenced sound, but a subsequent switch to a soft rock style was rewarded in 1968 with two US Top 30 entries, 'I Will Always Think About You' and 'Things I'd Like To Say'. Recently was chosen as Sirius Radio's 60s & Gold Fav Top Love Songs of the 60s

New Colony Six has the original members as well as new talented musicians to bring you back to the 60s and the 70s! You want great memories and a great band? Look no further than Illinois Rock & Roll Hall of Fame NEW COLONY SIX!

OFF BROADWAY is an American Power-Pop Rock band founded by John Pazdan and the late Cliff Johnson in Oak Park, Illinois. After several line-up changes including the addition of songwriters/guitarists John Ivan and Robert Harding, the band's debut album "ON" was released by Atlantic Records in 1979.

The album reached No. 101 on the Billboard 200 and spawned the single "Stay in Time", which reached No. 51 on the Billboard's Hot 100 Record Charts. Off Broadway released a follow-up album, "Quick Turns", on Atlantic Records in 1980 and continued touring for three years before going separate ways in 1983. In early May 1980, "Stay in Time" peaked at number 9 on the weekly music surveys of their hometown radio superstation WLS-AM in Chicago, which gave the song huge amounts of airplay.

Along the way the band became colleagues and toured with CHEAP TRICK. The band currently consists of original "ON" album players: Jim Cunningham, (lead singer), John Pazdan (bass guitar/backing vocals), John Ivan (guitar), Bill Kowalski (drums), and Rob Harding (guitar/backing vocals). Bringing back all their Billboard chart toppers, this band still knows how to put on a show!

LINDSEY LAWLER was discovered in LA by producers Marshall and London Jones (Jessica Simpson, Marcos Hernandez, to name a few), and recorded several songs for them which received national recognition. It was shortly after that Lawler saw a void of passion in her music and quickly decided to return to her country roots by relocating to Nashville, TN. She perfected her musical chops as a featured performer for over 2 years at the famous Tootsie's Orchid Lounge on Broadway in Nashville, TN. Then she took flight as a top-rated National Country Music Performer.

She is currently writing with some of Nashville's hottest songwriters and has just completed another year of touring! Lawler's true charisma is personified in front of a crowd...it is a live performance you won't want to miss!

In addition to her music, Lindsay Lawler is known to many for her radio personality. She has been featured for several years on the nationally syndicated radio shows based out of Dallas and broadcast to almost 70 markets, as well as Star 98.7 in Los Angeles. She also will be set to be a host on Sirius Radio.

An exceptionally strong live performer, Lindsay Lawler exudes classic charisma & sensuality on the big stage, captivating audiences of all demographics. Expect to see big things from this performer on your stage!

"LINDSEY LAWLER is a singer/songwriter. Her voice is sultry, gritty, very unique and down-home country. From the first word she sings to the last word it is hard not to pay attention to the young artist." On Stage

SKINNY MOLLY Founded in 2004 by Mike Estes, the former lead guitarist for LYNRYD SKYNYRD. Besides Mike Estes, Skinny Molly features former Blackfoot Rossington Band Jay Johnson guitarist/vocalist; Grand Ole Opry bassist/vocalist Luke Bradshaw and in demand Nashville studio drummer/vocalist Kyle Law.

On soaring vocals, slide guitar, mandolin and baritone, Mike is a force of nature. Jay Johnson delivers sizzling fretwork and supporting vocals, while the rhythm section of Kurt Pietro (drums) and Luke Bradshaw (bass) crank out the swing and sting with grit and grace. Some say there's magic in the air in Sheffield, Alabama – the city where benchmarks from the Stones' Brown Sugar to Dylan's Gotta Serve Somebody were nailed at the nearby Muscle Shoals studios – and it was thrillingly captured on this self-produced release.

This strong line up wows crowds throughout their European and U.S. tours. They are one of the featured bands for the 2023 Rock Legends Cruise.

MICHAEL CHARLES' musical pilgrimage began over six decades ago in his homeland Australia. While enjoying a successful musical crusade of touring, recording, and numerous television and radio appearances in his homeland, Michael received an invitation from Buddy Guy's management to appear at the infamous Legends in Chicago, Illinois USA. Graciously accepting the honor, Michael Charles traveled the twelve thousand five hundred miles and took the stage with Mr. Buddy Guy.

After numerous trips back and forth, Michael made the monumental and life changing decision to make America his new home. Charles worked the whole Chicago blues circuit performing with Mr. Buddy Guy, Phil Guy, James Cotton, Eddy Clearwater, Junior Wells, George Baze, as well as touring with blues legend, Jimmy Dawkins.

Through the next thirty years, and now a nine times Grammy nominated artist, Michael Charles enjoyed being featured in numerous television and radio broadcasts and several music magazines, along with gracing countless stages and pages including Chicago Blues Fest, Philadelphia Jazz and Blues Fest, Windy City Live Television, WGN TV, JBTv, The Chicago Tribune, The Chicago Sun Times, and The College Music Journal.

In October of 2015 Michael Charles received the extreme honor of an induction into the Chicago Blues Hall of Fame. Michael has received endorsements from Vertex and LR Baggs and in Canada from Godin Seagull Guitars. Michael Charles' discography is comprised of thirty-seven releases including a double CD thirty year anthology.

JOE CANTAFIO started his professional music career in 1973 with his band JADE 50's, dubbed "Chicago's Own Westside Story," and began setting attendance records wherever they performed. He was touring the nation by 1975, and in 1977 at the age of twenty-two, Cantafio became the Music Director of Dick Clark's Good Ol' Rock and Roll Show. Cantafio formed JADE 50's and performed with music legends Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Bo Diddley, Del Shannon, Roy Orbison, The Shirelles, The Coasters and many more. Two of those songs received national airplay and were played on Dick Clark's American Bandstand.

Joe also helped create over thirty of the Chicago-area's biggest festivals including "RibFest" and "Last Fling" in Naperville, "Eye's to the Skies Festival" in Lisle, "SeptemberFest" in Schaumburg and "AugustFest" in Des Plaines.

In 2001, Joe answered the call to American patriotism and adopted a New York Fire House with his year-long "Let Freedom Sing" national solo tour, bringing FDNY Firefighters with him across America, and receiving critical acclaim nationally.

Joe has returned to performing in concerts and at clubs as a solo artist or with his band Jade50s. He has been performing to standing-room-only audiences since his return. Joe has fans singing along and dancing in aisles.

THE CAVE DWELLERS Chicago's Original Garage Rock Band still has some legs and bang after starting nearly 57 years ago. The Cave Dwellers are back from the '60's – and invading the music scene with a vengeance!

The Cave Dwellers was the idea of Gary Goldberg. He grew up on the northside of Chicago and was a student at Wilbur Wright Junior College in the city. It was 1964 and the British Invasion was just reaching the American shores. Gary had a vision of having a rock and roll band to play gigs and make music. The group really began to take shape in late-1964. Now, over 50 years later, the Cave Dwellers are back, still making music and entertaining people.

The Cave Dwellers have been performing live, as well. They have played recent shows for disabled Vietnam Vet's, did a pair of USO gigs, appeared twice on the Facebook live stream show "Street of Dreams" and were recently invited to perform at national radio personality Dick Biondi's birthday celebration. They have also even recently released a live album called "Back From The '60's." They also have been nominated for the Illinois Rock and Roll Hall of Fame!

Dean Milano

Singer/Songwriter

In his younger days, Dean Milano spent a lot of time listening to people singing around the campfire.. As a result, he developed a deep love of folk music which has always stayed with him.

Milano has played at one time or another in probably 75 bands over a 50 year long career that encompasses his love of rock and roll, folk music, country and western, bluegrass, jazz, Cajun music, showtunes and every other type of music he heard along the way.

Dean spent time opening for bands such as the Spencer Davis Group, the Cryan' Shames, the Paul Butterfield Band and many more. The early 1980s found him in The New Seekers singing Hey There Georgy Girl for four years on the road and singing the National Anthem with them at Yankee Stadium in front of 40,000 crazed baseball fans.

By 2006, he returned to his folk music roots, performing the music he loved anywhere people would listen. He eventually had enough life stories to begin writing his experiences into songs. DEAN MILANO will bring to your venue a solo act that has your audience relive all the best!
